

GENERAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

General Meeting of Stockholders is the supreme governing body of OAO IDGC of Urals. The Charter of the Company includes the following aspects into its purview:

- Revision, restatement and amendment of the Charter or adoption of the Charter in a new version;
- Restructuring of the Company;
- Definition of quantity, par value, category (class) of authorized stock and rights attaching to the stock.

The exhaustive list of the General Meeting's purview is described in clause 10.2, article 10 of the Company's Charter. Aspects comprising the General Meeting's purview cannot be delegated to the Board of Directors, Executive Board and General Director of the Company. The General Meeting is not entitled to examine and decide on aspects that are not affirmed as its competence by the Federal Joint-Stock Companies' Law. The Charter and Regulations on the General Meeting of Stockholders stipulate preparation and conduct of the general meetings of stockholders by OAO IDGC of Urals.

Guided by recommendations of the Corporate Governance Code, the Company strives to provide its stockholders with a large variety of materials during arrangement of the general meeting to enhance feasibility of their decisions, including but not limited to position of the Board of Directors with regard to the meeting agenda, charts and tables for comparison of the current versions and to-be-introduced revisions of the Company's bylaws. All materials are posted on the Company's official web-site and Interfax news-wire web-page within 30 days prior to the General Meeting of Stockholders to provide a just-in-time unhindered access to them for proper examination.

The Regulations on the General Meeting of Stockholders stipulate, in an easy-to-understand manner, the mechanics of the meeting, with stockholders permitted to discuss the agenda items and address relevant questions. Votes regarding agenda items of the General Meeting are tallied by the counting board. Its functions are performed by the independent registrar of the Company.
